Sead Coach - Jim Shiffer

Jim Shiffer is entering his third season as the head football coach for the Mountaineers.

Shiffer returned home to his Mansfield roots when he was introduced as the 22nd Head Coach in the Mountaineers 114-year football history by then President John Halstead during a news conference on January 30, 2004.

A three-year starter on the offensive line for the Mountaineers from 1986-88, Shiffer became the first alumnus to direct the Red & Black since former NFL Canton Bulldog Ed Russell guided his last team 75 years ago.

The personable Shiffer returns to Mansfield after a successful career that included stops at Yale University, the University of Pittsburgh, Millersville University and Kutztown University.

A captain and Frank Butsko Award winner for outstanding play and leadership as a senior in 1988, Shiffer also started on the 1987 team that posted the best record since 1975. He started his coaching career as a student assistant at Mansfield before joining the staff at Millersville as a graduate assistant. He served as assistant offensive line and tight ends coach for the Marauders from 1989 through the 1991 season.

After receiving his master's degree in counselor education from Millersville in 1990, Shiffer guided Yale University's outside linebackers for the 1992 season. Shiffer left Yale to join Johnny Majors' staff at the University of Pittsburgh where he coached the offensive line and tight ends.

In 1994 he returned to Millersville where over the next eight seasons he helped guide the Marauders to seven winning seasons, three PSAC East crowns and two appearances in the NCAA Division II playoffs.

At Millersville, Shiffer served as offensive line coach, recruiting coordinator, and run game coordinator before being named interim head coach in 2001. He was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2001 season where he also served as special teams coordinator and linebackers coach.

In 2002, Shiffer joined the staff at Kutztown University as offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator.

Shiffer received his BA in geography from Mansfield in 1989 following a stellar high school career at Conestoga Valley High School. At Conestoga Valley, he was a three-year starter helping the Buckskins win three consecutive Lancaster-Lebanon League titles.

Assistant Coaches

Eddy Augustin - Defensive Line and Strength Coach

Augustin is in his second season with the Mountaineers after serving as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Norwich University. Prior to that he was the special teams coordinator and strength and conditioning coordinator at Norwich from 2001-2004.

Augustin started his collegiate coaching career at Millersville University serving as running backs coach in 1999 and 2000 before going to Norwich.

A 1994 graduate of Millersville with a degree in psychology, Augustin was a four-year member of the Marauder football program. He was a running back for his first two seasons before moving to linebacker.

Augustin helped the Marauders to a PSAC East title in 1993 and racked up 79 tackles including six sacks as a senior in 1994 helping his team to an 8-2 overall record. He was also a three year member of the wresting team while at Millersville, earning letters in 1992 and 1993.

After graduation, Augustin was an assistant coach at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek, CA for three seasons. In addition, he served internships at the University of Pennsylvania and Sonoma State University and was awarded a MA in sport psychology from John F. Kennedy University in Orinda, CA in 1998.

Dave Likins - Defensive Coordinator and Linebackers Coach

Dave Likins joined the Mountaineer football staff as linebackers coach in 2004 and was promoted to defensive coordinator for the 2005 campaign. Likins comes to Mansfield from the Hamburg Blue Devils of the German Football League where he served as defensive coordinator for three years. Under his tenure as defensive coordinator, the Blue Devils put together three straight national championships.

Prior to coaching the Blue Devils, Likins was an assistant coach for the Braunschweig Lions who were national champions in 1998 and 1999.

Before going overseas to coach, Likins served as a volunteer assistant coach from 1991-1992 at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. In 1991, North Carolina won the Peach Bowl.

After graduating from Centre College of Kentucky in 1980, Likins served as inside linebackers coach for Georgetown College before landing the position of outside linebacker coach at the University of Kentucky . While at Kentucky , he made consecutive trips to the Hall Of Fame Bowl in 1983 and were the champions of the 1984 Bowl.

Ryan Eden - Passing Game Coordinator - Quarterbacks Coach

Ryan Eden enters his third season as an assistant coach for the Mountaineers. Eden comes to Mansfield from Indiana University of Pennsylvania where he served as an assistant to the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for two seasons.

He was a quarterback for the perennial NCAA Division II powerhouse Indians in 2000 before receiving his BS in sports management in 2004.

IUP was ranked in the NCAA Division II Top Ten in each of his three seasons with the Indians, who won three Lambert Cups and twice advanced to the NCAA Division II playoffs.

Eddie Brown - Defensive Secondary Coach

Eddie Brown returns to the Mountaineers as defensive backs coach this season after his first season with the program in 2005. Prior to joining Mansfield, Brown served as an assistant coach with the New York Dragons of the Arena Football League in 2004.

Brown, who will oversee the defensive backfield, started at wide receiver for Aloha Bowl Champion Michigan State in 1989 and helped the Spartans to the Big Ten title and John Hancock Bowl Championship in 1990 as a starter in the defensive backfield.

After graduating from Michigan State with a BA in history, Brown signed as a free agent with the Miami Dolphins in 1991 before playing four seasons with the Tampa Bay Storm of the Arena Football League. While with Tampa Bay, Brown helped the Storm to three Arena Bowl Championships and was the three-time team MVP.

He played for the Connecticut Coyotes of the AFL in 1996 where he was named team MVP and moved on to the New York City Hawks in 1997 and 1998 earning team MVP honors once again. He was a member of the Buffalo Destroyers during the 1999-2002 seasons earning team MVP in 2001.

Daniel Hopkins - Offensive Line Coach

Daniel Hopkins returns to the Mountaineer staff this season as the offensive line coach.

Hopkins will direct the offensive line at Mansfield after serving as an offense line coach at Tennessee-Martin in 2004. He was an assistant coach on the defensive line at Temple in 2003 and a member of the Millersville University staff from 2001-03 as offensive line, outside linebackers and strength and conditioning coach.

Prior to coaching at the collegiate level, Hopkins served on the staffs of Solanco and Red Lion High Schools. A certified strength and fitness trainer, Hopkins is currently in the process of finishing his MS in sports management.

Hopkins played collegiate football at Glenville State (WV) and Bloomsburg University before receiving his BA from Millersville in 2002.

2006 Season Outlook

Opportunity will be the key word for the 2006 Mansfield University Mountaineer football program.

Of the 85 names on the preseason roster, just 35 were members of the 2005 squad including 12 starters. That leaves plenty of opportunity for the 50 newcomers to make an early impression on the coaching staff.

Third-year head coach Jim Shiffer will also have the opportunity to improve on last year's 1-10 season with a solid core of returning veterans, a stable coaching staff and his biggest and most talented recruiting class of his three year tenure.

The Mountaineers will hope to build on last season's impressive passing game that ranked third in the PSAC (235.4 ypg). Sophomore Rodney Davis (Bristol) promises to become the go-to player after setting a new school record and finishing second in the conference with 64 catches for 734 yards and six touchdowns in 2005.

Davis' immense talent will be used may ways, but he will likely see most of his time at running back along with senior Paul Garofalo (McKean) who missed all but two games last season after suffering a season ending injury.

Garofalo had rushed for more than 700 yards and six touchdowns in his previous two seasons.

While they have proven talent in the running game, the Mountaineers will start the season with their third new starter in three years at quarterback. Senior Tyler Blakeslee (Elmira, NY), an understudy for the past three seasons, is the only quarterback on the roster with collegiate experience. He will be challenged in camp by newcomers Garrett Kensy (Buffalo, NY), Justin Athans (West Seneca, NY), Brian Burke (West Chester), Jacob Krantz (East Amherst, NY), and Giles Ross (Watertown, NY).

Whoever wins the starting QB spot will have a veteran receiving corps to throw to. Senior Ozzie Mathis (Syracuse, NY) and sophomore Jeff Tanner (Sheppton) are both talented receivers who combined for 59 catches, 802 yards, and nine touchdowns last season. The 6-5 Mathis has all the tools for a breakout season after catching 35 balls for 481 yards and a team best seven TD's last year. Tanner, who earned a starting spot as a freshman, responded with 24 catches for 321 yards and two touchdowns.

Sophomore Adam Majchrowski (Pottstown) saw plenty of action last season and enters camp as one of four projected starting receivers along with senior Luke Straniere (Wellsboro) who returns after suffering a season ending injury last season.

Junior Donnie McDonough (Waymar) and red-shirt freshman Ryan Bernaiche (Hollis, ME) will also push for starting spots along with freshman Xavier Thomas (Johnstown). Newcomers Branigan Donahue (Newfield, NY), Brad Kizelle (Athens), Stewart Young (Steelton Highspire) and Tremaine Young (Cheektowaga, NY) will vie for playing time.

The offensive line should be solid anchored by three-time All-PSAC selection Jamar Foulks (Pittsburgh) at center. Foulks, who played at tackle last year, will line up next to two-year starter Mike Guanciale (Syracuse,NY) at guard with three-year starter Troy Cobaugh (Harrisburg) starting at left tackle. Mammoth sized (6-4, 330) red-shirt Chris Williams (Rochester, NY) is projected to start at the other guard spot with fellow freshman red-shirt Mike Allison (Williamsport) set at right tackle. Backing up the starter will be a host of newcomers including Matt Federico (Rochester, NY), John Gamble (Philadel-phia) and Shane Schuth (Spencerport, NY/).

Red-shirt freshman John Banzhof (Lancaster) will handle the kicking chores.

The Mountaineers expect to be much improved defensively after finishing at the bottom of the conference statistics last season.

Starters Brian Smith Canansburg), Kimarley Pennicott (Philadelphia) and Nick Roseberry (Edinboro) return on the D-line where they combined for 68 stops last season. Roseberry is the top returning tackler from last year's front line where he recorded 36 tackles including 4.5 for a loss. Pennicott became a force on the inside as a freshman in 2005 with 19 tackles including two for a loss. Smith, the one senior up front, had 13 stops last season. Junior long-snapper Eric Bohannon (Myerstown) is also expected to see action at end.

Red-shirt freshman Jermaine Smith (Kissimmee, FL) is expected to make an immediate impact at defensive end where he will be pushed by junior Jamie Laws (Reading) who saw significant action last season before suffering a season ending injury. 6-8, 220 junior Mike Lengel (Mechanicsburg) will move across the line of scrimmage to defensive end while incoming freshman Adelaja Crossdale (Rochester, NY) and Chad Collier (Rochester, NY) will look for playing time. Steven Alfaro (Washington, DC), Joseph Hudson (Washington, DC), Garry Johnstone (Steelton), Dan Murray (Owego, NY), Michael Payne (Wayne, NJ), Jorell Owens (Lancaster), and Eric Spotts (Shamokin) provide plenty of depth coming into camp.

Senior linebacker Andre Turner (Pittsburgh) will again be the heart-and-soul of the defensive from his middle linebacker spot. Turner, a three-time All-PSAC East selection recorded a team bests 100 tackles last season including 4.5 for a loss. He also topped the team in pass breakups with six and recovered three fumbles.

Sophomore Troy Gadinet (Reading) returns at outside linebacker after sitting out last season. The speedy Gadinet broke into the starting lineup late in the 2004 season racking up 27 tackles. Fellow sophomore Tom Duer (Williamsport) is penciled in at the outside backer spot on the preseason depth chart. Duer appeared in eight games as a freshman last season. Veterans Pat Devlin (Chalfont) and Dan Eberly (Mechanicsburg) will push for a starting spot on the outside along with freshman red-shirts Richard Lopez (Allentown) and Jordan Shank (Mt. Joy). Freshman Josh Miller (Johnstown) is expected to make his presence felt while fellow freshmen A.J. Foire (Clarks Summit), Pelle Grimm (York), Ryan Hastings (Williamsport), Keyon Hollis (Horseheads,NY), Joe Schottmiller (Rochester,NY), Donte Spivey (Binghamton, NY), Michael Taylor (Pottsgrove), and Justin Watson (Washington, DC) will add depth.

The secondary comes into camp with four veterans. Seniors CJ Okogeri (NYC) and Jon Mattis (Halifax) are projected to start at strong safety and corner. Okogeri had more tackles than any returner with the exception of Turner last season with 63 stops. Mattis recorded 35 tackles with an interception.

Junior Taylor Ruddy (Chadds Ford) returns to his starting spot at the other corner. Ruddy, who moved over to defense from wide receiver last season, recorded 30 tackles along with a team high two interceptions in 2005. Junior transfer Ricky Jones (Cleveland, OH) will also push for a starting spot.

Red-shirt freshman Michael Gardier (Dunmore) proved to be a tough hitter during spring ball and is expected to start at free safety. Veterans Soloman Isom (Philadelphia) and Tom Malinich (Carlisle) will provide depth along with newcomers Max Bartlebaugh (Grantville), Eric Bignom (New York City), Brent Fairbrother (Vestal,NY), Kelly Love (Syracuse,NY), Donald Oeschslin (Horseheads,NY), Gary Tillman (Rockville, MD) and Tremaine Young (Cheektowaga, NY).

Senior punter Brandon Fields (Altoona) will be a four-year starter this season.

2006 Mansfield University Football Prospectus

All-Star Candidates

# 51 - Jamar Foulks - Senior

Pittsburgh / Westinghouse H.S. Position: Center Major: Criminal Justice Height: 6-4 Weight: 321

Preview: Massive center will anchor a veteran offensive line this season. Jamar, a three-time All-PSAC East selection, was awarded the Frank A. Butsko Award for his outstanding play on the offensive line last season. The senior Criminal Justice major has started all 32 of his games as a Mountaineer. Foulks is the emotional and physical leader of the offense and is one of the emotional leaders of the team.

ANSFIELD

5 - Andre' Turner - Senior Pittsburgh / Peabody H.S. Position: Middle Linebacker Major: Criminal Justice Administration Height: 6-1 Weight: 230

Preview: Andre' Turner returns for his senior year to be the physical and emotional leader of the Mountaineer defense. Turner was named to the All-PSAC East Second Team for the third consecutive year in 2005 when he led the team in tackles with 100 total stops, including 45 solo. He recorded 4.5 tackles for a loss and six pass breakups. Turner also recovered three fumbles for 18 yards last season. One of the best linebackers in the PSAC, Turner has great size and speed, and closes well using great instincts on the field.

All-Star Candidates

#4 - Rodney Davis - Sophomore

Bristol / Neshaminy H.S. Position: Running Back Major: Undeclared Height: 5-10 Weight: 210

Preview: Rodney Davis will move to his natural position at running back this season after serving as a backup last year. Davis shifted to receiver last season and ranked among the PSAC leaders. The team receiving leader in 2005, Davis pulled in a season record 64 receptions for 734 yards and six touchdowns. He averaged 66.7 receiving yards per game while averaging 3.9 yards per game on the ground. Davis will likely see time returning kicks as well.

# 81 - Ozzie Mathis - Senior

Syracuse, NY / Corcoran H.S. Position: Wide Receiver Major: Business Height: 6-4 Weight: 205

Preview: Ozzie Mathis joined the Mountaineer squad in 2005 and ended up leading the team in touchdown receptions. A transfer from a junior college in California, Mathis had an immediate impact on the success of the passing game at Mansfield. The senior business major appeared in 10 games last season while starting nine. He pulled in 35 receptions for 481 yards and seven touchdowns in 2005 while averaging 48.1 receiving yards per game. Mathis helped Mansfield finish third in the PSAC in passing offense averaging 235.4 yards per game.

2006 Mansfield University Football Prospectus

Tyler Blakeslee - QB - # 17 Elmira, NY / Ithaca H.S. Ht: 6-3 Wt: 185 Major: Communications Preview: Projected starter at QB. Only player on roster with collegiate QB experience.

Troy Cobaugh - OL - # 76 Harrisburg / Central Dauphin East H.S. Ht: 6-3 Wt: 263 Major: Criminal Justice Administration Preview: Will start for the fourth consecutive year on the OL. Will be a key part of anchoring the veteran OL. Could be All-PSAC candidate

Dan Eberly - LB - # 48 Mechanicsburg / Cumberland Valley HS Ht: 6-0 Wt: 220 Major: Criminal Justice Preview: Expected to start on special teams and serve time at LB this season after playing in all 11 games last year.

Brandon Fields - Punter - #32 Altoona / Altoona H.S. Ht: 5-9 Wt: 205 Major: Criminal Justice Administration Preview: Will start in 2006 for fourth consecutive year. Averaged 38.2 yards per kick last season including a career long 73 yard punt.

Paul Garofalo - RB - # 24 McKean / Gneral McLane H.S. Ht: 5-5 Wt: 180 Major: Criminal Justice Preview: Projected to start in the backfield this season. Returning from season ending injury last year.

Halifax / Halifax H.S. Ht: 5-8 Wt: 165 Major: Criminal Justice Administration Preview: Projected starter at DB after being last season's Most Improved

Player. Speedy and agressive player.

Jon Mattis - DB - #13

C.J. Okogeri - LB / DB - # 97 New York, NY / Bayside Ht: 6-0 Wt: 216 Major: Social Work / Criminal Justice Preview: Will start in defensive backfield this season. Fifth on team in tackles last season - second for returning players.

Brian Smith - DL - # 61 Canonsburg / Canon-McMillian H.S. Ht: 6-0 Wt: 265 Major: Fisheries Preview: Projected starter at DT this season. Appeared in 9 games last season recording 13 tackles.

Luke Straniere - WR - # 85 Wellsboro / Wellsboro H.S.

Ht: 6-1 Wt. 205

Major: Secondary Education Preview: Will start at WR this season after suffering season ending injury in 2005. Expected to make a serious contribution.

Athletic Training

Head Athletic Trainer - Laurie Zaparzynski

Zaparzynski directs an athletic training staff that includes an assistant athletic trainer and 12 students. The staff is responsible for over 1,000 students who participate in intercollegiate and intramural sports.

A native of Danville, PA, Zaparzynski is entering her 18th year as an athletic trainer at MU, her 15th as head athletic trainer. Zaparzynski is a 1987 graduate of Lock Haven University where she earned a BS in health, physical education, and athletic training. She received her Masters degree as a reading specialist in 1988 from Bloomsburg University where she also served on the athletic training staff.

Zaparzynski is a state-licensed Class A certified Athletic Trainer. She was the head athletic trainer for Danville High School in 1988 and has an extensive athletic training background in high school and collegiate sports.

An assistant professor in the Robert Packer Department of Health Science and Physical Activity, and an active member the Eastern Athletic Trainers' Association, Zaparzynski resides in Mansfield with her husband, Joe, and sons, Graeme and Bryce.

Assistant Athletic Trainer - Brian Oakes

Brian Oakes is entering his ninth year as the Assistant Athletic Trainer at Mansfield. Oakes is a native of the area, growing up in Covington and graduating from North Penn High School in Blossburg.

Oakes left the region to attend college at Lock Haven University where he received his Bachelors Degree in Health Sciences in 1994. Wasting no time, he accepted the Assistant Trainer position at Lycoming College and became their first Assistant Athletic Trainer. Oakes held that position for three years before accepting a position at Mansfield in 1997.

He continued his education while working full time as the Assistant Athletic Trainer, graduating with his Masters Degree in Education from Mansfield in 2001.

An active member of the Eastern Athletic Trainers' Association, Oakes works as an outreach Athletic Trainer for Susquehanna Health Systems in the Southern Tioga School District, a position he has held since coming to Mansfield in 1997. Oakes is a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Trainers' Association as well as the National Athletic Trainers' Association. He resides in Mansfield with his wife Carolyn. They are expecting their first child in November 2006.

Athletic Development

Alex Ogeka - Director of Development for Athletics

This relatively new position in the University Advancement Division is responsible for designing and implementing marketing and promotions strategies to maximize event attendance, revenue, sponsorship of athletic events and increasing donor giving.

"In the short time that I have been here, it is clear to me that the common goal at Mansfield is to provide the best possible college experience, both on and off the court and/or field, for our student-athletes," Ogeka said. "I believe that speaks a lot about the athletic department and the institution as a whole."

Ogeka comes to MU from the University of Hartford (CT) where he was director of athletic department marketing and ticket operations for more than two years. Before that he spent four years in marketing and promotions with the Erie (PA) Otters Hockey team. Ogeka holds a B.A. in Sports Marketing from Mercyhurst College.

Ogeka has been responsible for the day-to-day management of the MU Football Legacy Club, an organization created in 2004 to help raise scholarship money for the football program.

The Legacy Club has seen outstanding development under Ogeka, in the form of new members, increased donations, and well-attended events both on and off the campus of Mansfield University.

The Legacy Club raised well over $25,000 in each of it's first two years and had reached $19,300 and 96 members at the time of this publication in late July.

Legacy Club events have included:

- Tailgate parties at Mansfield and at Coastal Carolina University in Conway, South Carolina
- The annual Frank A. Butsko Awards Breakfast and Spring Red and Black game
- Multiple Golf Outings
- Many more events...

For information on how to become a part of the Legacy Club visit: www.GoMounties.com/Football/2006LegacyClub.html OR Contact Alex at:
